WESTERN EDUCATIONAL LONGITUDINAL STUDY (WELS) BASELINE SURVEY OF FRESHMEN ENTERING IN THE FALL, 2007

WELS BACKGROUND

The Western Educational Longitudinal Study (WELS) is a series of internal longitudinal surveys of all in-coming first-year and transfer students administered every two-three years. This study involves an initial assessment of students prior to entering Western and then a series of follow-ups at different points in their academic careers. The purpose of this study is threefold: (1) To assess student needs based on their self-reported characteristics, perceptions and concerns; (2) To provide data that can be used to better assess academic and co-curricular programs by providing baseline entry data that can be used as statistical controls in analyses to offset the inability to conduct randomized studies; and (3) To maintain an ongoing record of student knowledge acquisition, ability levels, and other general education outcomes to address concerns of accountability and accreditation.

The WELS is conducted by the Office of Survey Research (OSR) and uses a mixture of on-line and telephone survey methodologies. Since the data collected in these studies includes identifying information, these data can and are linked with data in student records, thus expanding their usefulness beyond what could be obtained using large national studies such as the National Study of Student Engagement (NSSE). Although WELS data cannot, like other national studies, be used for comparisons to other institutions, the surveys have more flexibility in content to allow them to be tailored to Western's needs.

WELS 2003 COHORT

The first WELS was administered in the summer, 2003, and included only in-coming freshmen (no transfers)¹. The baseline survey was developed as a result of meetings with various stakeholders across campus (the Provost's Office, student services, deans, the faculty senate, ATUS, etc.) as well as focus groups with students and a search for potentially useful items used on various national surveys. This baseline included 1580 out of 2225 incoming first year non-transfer students (a response rate of 71%). This cohort was then followed up at the end of their first quarter (fall, 2003: 42% response rate), the end of their first year (spring, 2004: 55% response rate), and the end of their second year (spring 2005: 70% response rate), and at the end of their third year (spring, 2006: 50% response rate). Each follow-up survey is designed to address pressing concerns about student needs, programming, and accountability and accreditation standards pertinent to the students' year in college. (For example, the first quarter follow-up of the 2003 cohort was focused on how well students make the adjustment to college; and the first and second year follow-ups focused on GURs; and the third year follow-up focused on majors.)

WELS 2005 COHORTS

A second series of WELS baseline surveys was initiated in the summer, 2005, and again included all in-coming freshmen, although this time a separate baseline survey was developed for transfer students as well. The baseline for the 2005 survey of freshmen included 1691 out of 2386 incoming students (a response rate of 71%). The baseline for the 2005 survey of transfers included 875 out of 1029 entering transfer students (a response rate of 85%). Please see below for the list of reports on these two cohorts.

CURRENT SURVEY

This report presents findings from the fall, 2007, baseline survey of entering freshmen. The sample was of all entering freshmen, with or without college credit from high school, a total of 2392 students. There were 1484 online responses, and 302 phone responses, a total of 1786 (a 75% response rate). Survey topics included Summerstart, logistic confidence, motivation and expectations, academic and social engagement and challenges while in high school, a current assessment of academic skills and competencies, academic priorities and study strategies, and issues related to health, wellness, and alcohol use.

¹Current definitions of the term "freshmen" include nowadays a small percentage of students who do not fit the traditional profile of a freshman. These include high school students who have earned Running Start and Advanced Placement (AP) credits. Technically, these students are entering college for the first-time, but may have earned as many as 90 college credits.

ALCOHOL USE: DEFINITION OF "ONE DRINK"

This special section of the survey was added for the Office of Prevention and Wellness at Western and focuses on incoming students' recent use of alcohol and their perceptions about how much other students entering Western typically use alcohol.

These question asked about alcohol use over the past month and reported in terms of the "number of alcoholic drinks" consumed. The following equivalencies constituted "one drink":

- 10 ounces of standard brand beer, ale, or lager (5% Alcohol)
- 8 ounces of microbrew, or malt beer/liquor (6% Alcohol)
- 8 ounces of wine cooler or hard lemonade (6% Alcohol)
- 4 ounces of wine (12% Alcohol)
- 1 ounce of 100 proof liquor - straight up or mixed

ALCOHOL USE

When was the last time that you had an alcoholic drink? (N=1737)

Never	33%
Within the past month	42%
1-3 month ago	14%
More than three months ago	11%

Thinking back to the occasions when you drank alcohol over the past month, choose the one occasion when you had the most to drink. On that occasion, how many one drink equivalents did you have? Also, on this occasion, how many hours did you spend drinking the above number of drinks? (N=737. Responses of "less than one" recoded as 0.5.)

	Mean	Standard Deviation
Number of drinks	6.1	4.2
Number of hours	3.2	2.0

On a given weekend evening during the past month, how much alcohol did you typically drink? Also, how many hours did you spend drinking the above number of drinks? (N=737. Responses of "less than one" recoded as 0.5.)

	Mean	Standard Deviation
Number of drinks	3.5	2.2
Number of hours	2.6	2.0

ALCOHOL USE (Cont.)

On how many days during the past month did you have at least one alcoholic drink? (N = 737)

1-2 Days	37%
3-5 Days	34%
6-9 Days	15%
10-14 Days	7%

PERCEPTIONS OF ALCOHOL USE BY WWU STUDENTS

Even though respondents may not have yet met any Western students, they were asked about their assumptions about what they will be like. Responses were based on the same equivalencies as in the previous section.

Over the course of the past month, how many "drinks" of alcohol do you think a typical Western student consumed each day of a typical week? (N=1737)

	Mean	Standard Deviation
Monday	0.7	1.2
Tuesday	0.7	1.2
Wednesday	0.9	1.4
Thursday	1.3	1.9
Friday	4.3	2.8
Saturday	4.7	2.9
Sunday	1.6	2.2

On how many days during a typical month do you think a typical Western student has at least one alcoholic drink? (N=1711)

Never	2%
Less than once	2%
1-2 Days	9%
3-5 Days	23%
6-9 Days	33%
10-14 Days	19%
15-19 Days	8%
20-24 Days	3%
25-29 Days	0%
All 30 Days	0%

Using the same equivalencies as before, how many "drinks" of alcohol do you think a typical Western student consumes on a given occasion? Also, using the same equivalencies as before, how many "drinks" of alcohol do you think a typical Western student consumes on a given occasion? (N=1700)
